

The Environmental Summer school at the North West Academy

During the Environmental Summer School students will have the chance to explore the natural heritage of the stunning Northern Ireland and Donegal. The informal and fun programme consist of morning English classes and a variety of social activities to be chosen among: field trips, activities in the park, activities in leisure centres, games, team building activities, excursion etc. Participant can expect a great mix of nationalities.

north west academy

Environmental summer school programme

Week programme

- Morning: English course
- Afternoon: social activities
- Evening: activities in the accommodation

Week end programme

- Saturday: day trip to the beautiful Giant's Causeway, Glenveagh Park etc.
- Sunday: free time with tutors supervisor

The environmental Summer School is suitable from young people from 11 to 18 year old.

Minimum number: 5 students

The environmental Summer School is inclusive of the following services:

- Transfer from Belfast and Derry City Airports
- Full board accommodation
- Transport refund
- Full use of school facilities
- 24/7 emergency contact provided
- 20 lessons per week
- Certificate of attendance
- Free accommodation for tutors (for 3 week project)

Accreditations:

